LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

Ins and Outs of the United States Senate—The Retiring Senators, the Expectants and the Coming Contests for Seats—Interesting Reviews and Prognostications—The Jefferson Davis Case in the Supreme Court—The Tariff Bill—New Year's Day Observances in Washington—General Grant and President Johnson.

WASHINGTON, December 28.

On the 4th of March next the terms of the following Senators expire: J. A. Bayard, of Delaware; Charles R. Buckalew, of Pennsylvania; Zachariah Chandler, of Michigan; John Conness, of California; James Dixon, of Connecticut; Jas. R. Doolittle, of Wisconsin; Geo. F. Edmunds, of Vermont; F. T. Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey; Jno. B. Henderson, of Missouri; Thos. A. Hendricks, of Indiana; Edwin D. Morgan, of New York; Lot M. Morrill, of Maine; David T. Patterson, of Tennessee; Alexander Ramsey, of Minnesota; Wm. Sprague, of Rhode Island; Wm. M. Stewart, of Nevada; Charles Sumner, of Massachusetts; Thos. W. Tipton, of Nebraska; P. G. Van Winkle, of West Virginia; Benj. F. Wade, of Ohio; A. S. Welch, of Florida, and Wm. Pinkney Whyte, of Maryland.

Of these twenty-two Senators, only two, so far, have been re-elected, Messrs. Edmunds and Sprague, both radicals. In California, Eugene Casserly, conservative, has been elected to succeed Mr. Conness, who is a radical; in Connecticut, Ex Gov. Buckingham, radical, has been elected to succeed Mr. Dixon, conservative. Mr Patterson, of Tennessee, conservative and son-in-law of President Johnson, will be succeeded by Parson Brownlow, Ohio will exchange Ben Wade, radical, for Judge Allen G. Thurman, conservative, and Maryland Wm. Pinkney Whyte for Wm. T. Hamilton, both conservatives. The Florida Legislature has elected Abijah Gilbert to succeed M. A. S. Welch. The latter gentleman, although he has been representing Florida in the Senate for the last six months, has never given up his residence in his own State of Iowa, where he will return, after the 4th of March, to take charge of the State Agricultural College. He is the only carpet bag Senator who goes out with this Congress.

The Legislatures of fourteen of the States have yet to fill the vacancies which will occur, the election in all of which will take place in the month of January. The following named Senators will, it is thought, certainly be re-elected, as there is no serious opposition to them in their respective States: Messrs. Bayard, Chandler, Stewart, Sumner and Tipton. Owing to the adverse fortune of politics the following Senators will have, nolens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senate chamber the day that General Grant is inaugurated, the Legislatures of the States being now politically opposed to them—Messrs. Buckalew, Doolittle, Frelinghuysen and Hendricks; of these only one is a radical, Mr. Frelinghuysen. For Mr. Buckalew's vacant seat it is thought now that ex Governor Curtin has the best chance. Mr. Matt. H. Carpenter will very probably step into Mr. Doolittle's shoes, and no one doubts that the Legislature of New Jersey will supply Mr. Frelinghuysen's place with John P. Stockton, who was so wrongfully ousted from his seat by the Senate in 1865. There are a number of radical contestants for the honors so worthily worn by Mr. Hendricks for six years, but the fight has not yet assumed a sufficiently definite shape to indicate the coming man.

In West Virginia it is understood that Mr. Van Winkle will not be a candidate for re-election. The Legislatures of the States represented by Messrs. Henderson, Morgan, Morrill and Ramsay are in political accord with them, but there is a bitter opposition to them in their own party.

The best informed here say that there is no question about the defeat of Mr. Henderson in Missouri on account of his impeachment record, and that Gen. Carl Schurz has the best chance of being his successor. Mr. Henderson, however, is still full of fight, and refuses to give it up. In New York there is a very influential clique working against Governor Morgan, whose great argument is that he cannot talk, and that the great State of New York ought not to have a "dummy" in the Senate. It was this same cry which killed off Judge Harris two years ago, and secured the election of a "talking man," (too much so,) Roscoe Conkling, in his place. But the Morgan combination is wealthy and powerful, and his friends here are ready to bet that he will yet win. In Maine, Mr. Morrill will have to encounter Vice President Hamlin, who is a foeman worthy of his steel.—The odds here are two to one on Hamlin.

The most stubborn contest of all, though, will probably be in Minnesota. Here the Donnelly and Wilkinson cliques will dispute every inch with Mr. Ramsey. Donnelly is as obstinate as a mule and as tenacious as a bull-dog. Failing last fall to receive the radical nomination for the House, he ran as an independent candidate, and was thus the means of electing a democrat. He has no hopes of securing the Senatorship himself, but only desires to defeat Ramsey, even at the expense of getting a democrat in. Mr. Wilkinson has been elected to the next House, but he has been in the Senate once before, and would prefer to return there, and, being an adroit politician, his friends have great hopes of his success. That Mr. Ramsey will have a tough time in getting back looks very likely, but he is full of confidence, and those who know what an accomplished wire worker he is, think he will be hard to beat. During the Taylor campaign he was chairman of the whig State committee of Pennsylvania, and Gen. Taylor recognized his services by sending him out to Minnesota Territory as Governor and Indian agent, and he has since filled every position of profit or consequence in the gift of the State. He left to-night for the seat of war, and will not return until victory (or defeat) perches upon his banner.

The Supreme Court re assembles early in January, and it is suggested that Mr. Davis return at once and be surrendered by his bail. He will then be committed to custody, and a writ of habeas corpus will then be applied for to the Supreme Court, and the discharge of the prisoner be asked for on the ground that the amnesty extended by the President absolves him from all liabilities, and letters have already been sent to him to England urging that he allow his case to be made the test, in order to discover the true weight of the President's proclamation.

The tariff bill, which was pending in the House at the adjournment, will, soon after the reassembling, be re-committed to the Ways and Means Committee, for the reason that in its present shape it is not certain of passing. It does not yet contain "protection" enough, and several of the interests which have been left out in the cold have combined to stave it off until they are represented. Upon the re committal of the bill new clauses will be added to obviate this little difficulty.

A delegation of colored men from Georgia have recorded themselves at the rooms of the Union Congressional Committee. They come here to protest against the admission of Messrs. Hill and Miller to the Senate, although disclaiming any personal objection to either of these gentlemen.

On New Year's day it is the custom for all the officers of the army in the city to call on the President in a body, with the senior officer in command here at the head. General Grant is not only the head of the army, but is the senior officer in command here, his headquarters being at Washington, and much curiosity has been manifested as to the course he will pursue on next Friday. It is known that he and Mr. Johnson have never spoken since the famous correspondence which grew out of General Grant's surrender of the war office to Mr. Stanton, and the wonder is whether General Grant would make any advances toward reconciliation, although many contend that the mere observance of the official etiquette which always prevails on the occasion would involve no necessity of further intercourse with the President. It seems, however, that General Grant considers a meeting between him and the President under any circumstances would be awkward, for it is learned to night that he does not intend to go to the White House until he enters as lord and proprietor on the 4th of March.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid. This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric, with astonishing rapidity, cleaning it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling and pressing process must necessarily fall from more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Hundreds of these Boilers are being sold each week, giving perfect satisfaction.

Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or money refunded.

Can be seen in full operation at Lougee & Brother's.

We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly.

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Gold closed in New York, last evening at 1.34½. Cotton closed at 26.

Richard Clayton, member of the House of Representatives from Chowan County, has resigned his seat, on account of ill health.

Wm. K. Lane, Esq., of Goldsboro', an old and estimable citizen, generally known throughout the State, died at his residence in that place, on Sunday night last, of dropsy.

Mr. James Pruden, a most promising young man from Hertford County, in this State, died at the University of Virginia, last week, from the effects of congestive chills.

Dr. Basil Manly, Jr., a distinguished minister of the Baptist Church, died at the residence of his son in Greenville, South Carolina, on Monday morning, the 21st inst. Dr. Manly was a native of Chatham County, in this State, and a brother of Ex-Gov. Charles Manly, of this City, and of Judge M. E. Manly, late one of the Judges of our Supreme Court.

"Data" says there is good authority for the statement that Hon. E. B. Washburne will not accept a position in Gen. Grant's Cabinet. Mr. Washburne's health is such as to require the most scientific medical treatment, which he proposes to seek in Paris the coming Spring.

Mrs. Augustus N Dickens, widow of Augustus Dickens, brother of Charles Dickens, committed suicide on Christmas, in Chicago, by taking morphine. She sent her children to the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. Lawrence, on Christmas eve, to take part in getting up a Christmas tree—They remained there over night, and on their return home discovered their mother on the floor, dead. Mrs Dickens was thirty-five years old, and leaves three children. She has suffered much lately from poverty, being dependent almost entirely upon her friends for the necessaries of life. Here is a theme for another Christmas story by the pr at Novelist! His sentimentalism, like that of Sterne, seems to be all on paper

The correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from this City, commenting upon the increase of crime in the State, very justly says:

"For three successive weeks the commutation of the death sentence has been recorded in the cases of three criminals whose penalties had been affixed by competent reconstructed Courts and approved by the highest legal tribunal in the State—the Supreme Court. The release of such criminals as Cæsar Griffin, Sallie Anderson and Jeter Phillips, in Virginia, can have no more baneful effect than the pardon of such murderers as Alexander Wills, John Owens and Joseph Lovick, in North Carolina. Capital punishment seems to be practically abolished in a community where crime and outrage are of daily occurrence."

"Abramo Lincoln e Giovanni Booth" is the title of a play now acting at a Naples Theatre. The sensational scene is the leap of a slave-girl from a third-story window.

Several Radical members of Congress have unhesitatingly given their approval of the amnesty proclamation, and legislation in Congress is suggested in consonance with the spirit of that document. Senator Ferry, it is said, will at an early day introduce a bill for the purpose of removing all disabilities from persons who participated in the rebellion.

It is rumored that Weed has sold his interest in the Commercial Advertiser on account of feeble health.

The great ox presented to Gen. Grant left Boston on the 20th for Washington, where he is to be roasted and devoured on the 4th of March.

The people of South Carolina find fault with their negro Legislature more on the ground of its extravagance than anything else. It has had one session this year already, which cost the State $100,000; and at the present session, a few days ago, a bill was introduced appropriating $140,000 for the pay and mileage of members. Before the war the Legislature used to cost from $20,000 to $30 000.

There was a fight in Lynchburg, Va., on Christmas, between a negro and two white men, which caused a rally of the negroes and a very threatening state of affairs for some minutes. The police interfered, however, and calmed the blacks without further trouble.

The Womanhood Suffrage Association held a Convention in Washington, on the 16th, when all the standard speakers will be present. Their base is the District, in which they seek a law giving all women the right to vote. Several Congressmen are to take part, including Pomeroy, Wilson, Wade, Julian, and, it is said, Haight, of New Jersey.

"JUDGE" TOURGEE AND THE GRAND JURY OF ORANGE.

We have been taught to believe that suppression of truth is equivalent to falsehood. "Judge" Tourgee, in the Standard of the 29th inst., suppresses the truth, and the whole material truth, with regard to the presentment of the Grand Jury of Orange.

It will be remembered that, about the first of December, the Sentinel published the presentment referred to. The Grand Jury very properly presented all the Judges of the State, except Judges Mitchell and Boxton, for taking, as they had done, an active part in politics,—some of them, even, having been out making inflammatory speeches to negroes, (for few white people heard them.) We say that some of them did this, while more than one of the Judges were seen "as drunk as scots," exhibiting themselves in public. A police officer of this city arrested one of "their Honors" on one of our streets, in a semi nude condition, and, in a drunken, triumphant manner, calling the attention of ladies passing to his nakedness. One was seen on the cars beastly intoxicated, and Mr. Peterson, the well known agent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, at Weldon, can tell what accident befel his Honor, when in that unjudicial condition.

"Judge" Tourgee, in his letter to the Standard, says:

"I now improve the earliest moment in my power, to give to the public the true state of facts in regard to the said paper writing. No such presentment was made to the Court, nor to the Judge thereof, during any term at which I have presided in that county or any other. Had any such presentment been made to me, the Grand Jury engaged in making the same would have been instantly accommodated with lodgings in the county Jail, and had it appeared that any Attorney of the Court was also engaged in the matter, he would have kept them company. * * * *

Not even the editor of the Sentinel could for a moment regard a presentment made other than to the Judge in open Court, as any presentment at all, or any part of the proceedings of the term.

What presentment was made to the Editor of the Sentinel, or to any other person, out of Court, by the Grand Jury of the county of Orange, or by anybody else, I do not know; but I do know that if any such presentment was made in term time by the Grand Jury under the name and style of

"ORANGE COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT, } Fall Term 1868. }

We the Grand Jury of the county of Orange, &c. &c."

I say the making of any such presentment by a Grand Jury, to any but the Judge in open Court, is not only the publication of false and spurious records of the Court, but a palpable violation of the Grand Juror's oath—the State's counsel, their fellow's and their own to keep secret, and which they had no right to disclose to any but by presentment to the Judge in open Court, or, when required to do so, in the course of a Judicial investigation, upon the witness stand.

If it was made by the grand jurors after the term had ended, and the Judge had left the bench, when the Court was not in session, and when they were no longer grand jurors, the act was a usurpation of the functions of a Grand Jury, a mockery of justice, and a prostitution of the forms of law, whose enormity far eclipses all the offenses alleged in the "paper writing" referred to, even granting its allegations to be true. It is a crime of the grossest character, and of the most dangerous tendency, for which every one of the persons engaged in it are responsible before a Court of Justice."

Now the Grand Jury did make such a presentment, and not to the Editor of the Sentinel.

The Editor of the Sentinel, on Thursday evening of the term, argued the last cause tried at the term. He left the Court room late in the evening, and, on Friday, went to the Court room, followed by his clients and witnesses, when the Clerk, Mr. Laws, informed him that the Judge had gone to Raleigh, to attend a meeting of the Trustees of the University, leaving the Grand Jury in session, and that he, the Clerk, was instructed to receive their presentments and discharge them!

The Grand Jury, on Friday, made a number of presentments, and, among them, the one complained of by the Judge and the parties presented, but highly approved by the press and the public, both in and out of the State,—we say a most righteous and well merited presentment.

The "Judge" is evidently no lawyer. If he were, he would know more about special pleading and legal definitions. He denies, first, that there was such a presentment. Then he pleads it was a forgery. Finally, he says: "If it was made by the Grand Jury, after the Term had ended, &c., it was a usurpation of the functions of the Grand Jury, a mockery of justice and a prostitution of the forms of law, whose enormity far eclipses all the offenses alledged in the paper writing, even granting its allegations to be true."

Such, we remember, was the pleading in the "cracked kettle case."

1st—The defendant never borrowed the kettle.

2d—He returned it, if he did.

3d—If the kettle was cracked, it was cracked when he got it.

But the paper is a "forgery!" Forgery is defined to be "the fraudulent making and alteration of a writing, malo animo, to the prejudice of another man's rights." The charge of forgery upon the Gand Jury is so finely taken, therefore, that we can't see it.

As to accommodating the "Grand Jury with lodgings in Jail," we tell his Honor that we know them all; that they have been patient under three years of oppression, insult and wrong; and that no one of them has ever been incarcerated in a Penitentiary or jail! Can his Honor say that much for himself?

His Honor's former friend, and Governor Holden's bosom friend and State Director of the North Carolina Railroad, charges, in the language of the presentment of the Grand Jury, that his Honor "is a jail bird and a convict from the Penitentiary of Ohio." People, look upon the Judge! Judge, look upon the people! What say you, Judge? "Guilty or not guilty?" We know that it is not prudent to speak after the "Hon." Windy Billy Henderson, if he is a "Hero of America" and friend of the Governor's, because, long before the Governor made him a State Director of the North Carolina Railroad, the best men of Davidson county swore, in open Court, that he was not to be believed on oath. But, "your Honor," this Penitentiary business has been charged upon you in the papers long ago, and if you do not deny it, it is in such a "questionable shape" that some friend, some honest, decent, well-minded man, for whose good opinion you might care, may perhaps suppose the charge genuine, and not a forged story of the "Hon." Windy Billy. If this Penitentiary charge is one of Hon. Windy Billy's making, it is time his Honor was correcting it. We are informed that Hon. Windy made the charges and repeated them deliberately before the people, when he and his Honor Tourgee were canvassing for Congress. When his "Honor" fought the "Honorable" Windy on the train, in the presence of ladies, he also called him a "jail bird."

But his Honor would make a volume on the beauties of reconstruction, and so we bid him adieu for the present, after adding, that it would more become the Judge, and the truth, if he had stated, as was true, that he left Court, leaving the Grand Jury in session, knowing that they had not finished their work, and instructing the Clerk to receive their presentments! Among them was the one presenting "your Honor."

THE DEBT STATEMENT.—The statement of the public debt for the month of December will show an increase of between two and three millions of dollars. It has been published erroneously that the debt has been decreased about eight millions. The internal revenue receipts have been about the average at this season, but the customs receipts have fallen off slightly. The War Department expenses, owing to the Indian difficulties, have largely increased.—Telegram 29th.

GEN. EARLY.—The Lynchburg Republican has the best reasons for saying that General Early does not propose to return to this country at all—certainly, not at present.

"Thanks to the Bar of the Seventh Judicial District, with one exception."

Judge Tourgee, in his letter suppressing the truth in regard to the presentment of the Grand Jury of Orange, thanks the Bar of the Seventh District, as above, with one exception, for the courteous deference with which they have aided him in the discharge of his new and onerous duties, and the forbearance which they have exercised toward "unavoidable defects."

We are not the exception the Judge makes. We bowed, every morning, profoundly, to the Bench, where Haywood, Moore, Taylor, Henderson, Gaston, Nash, Mangum and Caldwell once sat to administer law and justice. Though time and death have extinguished these luminaries of the law, how much better the dust, into which their tongues have mouldered, than the living tongues of Tourgee, Jones and Company!

But the exception! If we are not it, who is? We take it to be the father of the Bar in the Seventh Judicial District.

We heard him, in a mild, inoffensive way, tell his Honor that his ruling in a certain matter was erroneous.

His Honor seemed offended, at being charged, as he supposed, with ignorance of the law, and said that the "father" misapprehended him; and on being told that it was no question of law, but one of practice, which his Honor could not know, being a stranger to our courts and practice, he replied, with some flush in the face, that the court would not submit to such reflections. But he put no body in jail; he only withholds his thanks. When the Grand Jury tell him he is a stranger to the Judicial history of the State, he talks about "accommodations in the jail" for them!

At last Oxford court, a little boy said that it was a great shame to see Judge Gilliam voted off the bench by negroes, and then to have to call Sam Watts "your Honor."

Sitting at the Hotel in Elizabeth City, some days ago, we heard a citizen enquire of the landlord if "Charley" had come. We asked who "Charley" was, when the landlord replied "Judge Pool!" Another citizen of Elizabeth City said that Charley never had any practise at the bar. Holding court for two weeks was a good school for "Charley," but very expensive to the people.

A SINGULAR WILL.—Thomas C. Moore, a wealthy bachelor, formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., but recently of New Jersey, died recently. In his will liberal provision is made for several relatives, but a great portion of his estate seems to have been devised for purposes of charity and religious benevolence. One bequest is peculiar. The sum of $21,600 is set apart as a fund for the relief of destitute widows and children of Southern soldiers who died or were killed in the late war in the Eastern parts of South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia.—Another sum is set aside for the rebuilding or repairing of churches, without regard to sect or denomination, injured by the late war within the districts of the States named. Upwards of $10,000 is left to various churches and benevolent societies, including $1,000 to the American Seamen's Friend Society, $5,000 to Presbyterian Missions, $2,000 to the American Home Missionary Society, and $2,000 to Reformed Dutch missions. After the death of his sister, certain real estate is to be sold, and the following legacies paid out of the proceeds: American Home Missionary Society, $10,000; American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions, $10 000; American Tract Society, $10,000; and to the American Bible Society the remainder and residue of all such moneys. He leaves $3 000 to be invested for the benefit of Electa P. Moore, and at her death the principal to be divided between the American Bible and the American Tract Societies. The residuary, either through being overlooked or from non acceptance of legacies, or whatever other cause, goes to the American Bible Society.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."—A few days ago a respectably-dressed lady appeared at Gen. Grant's headquarters and asked his influence to secure an office under the Government, enforcing her application upon the plea that she had two sons killed in the late war. General Grant heard her story, and then turned her over to General Dent, instructing him to further inquire into the matter, and if the case was a really worthy one, to use his (Grant's) name in recommending her for a position in one of the Departments. General Dent, in turn, listened to her story, and finally asked her under what General her sons were serving when they lost their lives. The lady hesitated, and finally replied: "Well, to tell the truth, sir, one was serving under General Ewell and the other under Colonel Mosby." The interview terminated at once, and General Grant did not endorse the application for a position.—Baltimore Sun.

The following from the New York Tribune (evidently from the pen of Mr. Greeley himself,) pays a high compliment to President Johnson:

"Mr. Andrew Johnson is a man of many faults, but venality is not among them. We knew him in Congress, where men are pretty accurately weighed and measured; he has since filled almost every important station, made many bitter enemies, and waged deadly war against men abler and stronger than himself, yet he has never been charged with filling his own pockets at the public cost."

Wendell Phillips says: "The South creates an ideal Yankee: he does not exist; he never did exist. The North creates an ideal Southerner; he never existed. The United States lavishes thousands of millions of dollars in an endeavor to deal with an ideal Indian; he never existed." And Wendell Phillips and his confederates created an ideal negro that cost the people of North America millions of lives and hundreds of millions of dollars worth of property.—Mobile Tribune.

GEORGIA.—Senator Trumbull is actively working the Georgia Senatorial case referred to the Judiciary Committee, of which he is chairman. It is understood that the Illinois senator favors the admission of Hon. Joshua Hill. There is likely to be two reports, as Senator Edmunds is strongly opposed to the recognition of the senators elect.—Forney's Press.

SOUTHERN STATES MILITIA BILL.—The announcement is made that the President will, at an early day after Congress assembles, veto the Southern States militia bill. There is no authority for any such statement, and the President has not received notice of the passage of such a bill.—Telegram 29th.

[From the Montgomery Mail, December 18.]

A RECONSTRUCTED SENATOR STEALS A PAIR OF BOOTS.—A colored gentleman, the Hon. Tallaferro Page, who holds some office in the Alabama Senate, Sergeant at-Arms, Lieutenant Governor, or something of the sort, created a high excitement in the Senate yesterday. A Committee was appointed to act upon his case. It seems that he was walking off with a pair of shoes from Messrs. Newman & Bro., and had forgotten to pay for them, for which little piece of forgetfulness, such as Governor Applegate exhibited at Hon. Jacob Thompson's residence, he was made the subject of a special Reconstruction Committee. He will be promoted. The greater the forgetfulness, the better the Radical.

Doctor Cox, of Ohio, a physician of thirty years' standing, asserts that beer is most pernicious to the physical constitution—The children of beer drinking parents succumb readily to disease; and cases requiring surgical treatment, ulcers and sores, are much more difficult of management in beer-drinkers than even with consumers of whisky.

WELL STATED.—The Petersburg Index says:

"The sensible men of Virginia have ceased to bother themselves about negro suffrage, and they now address themselves to the only practical question before them, and that is obtaining the release of white men from disqualification and disfranchisement."

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal Viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the disordered action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among many of the worst of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an undisputed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other presentiuns against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was affixed to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the parties who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have preceded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the endorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been counterfeited by unscrupulous humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonor

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1868.

JUDGE WATTS COMING TO THE RESCUE OF THE PEOPLE AND THE STATE.—On the 29th instant, A. J. Galloway, Esq., of Goldsboro, filed a bill and obtained an injunction, before Judge Watts, at Chambers, against David A. Jenkins, Public Treasurer, and the Chatham Railroad Company, restraining the Treasurer from subscribing two millions of dollars to the aforesaid Company; restraining the issue of State bonds to pay for the same; and, also, restraining the Chatham Railroad Company from accepting the subscription or receiving the bonds.

Judge Fowle, R. C. Badger, Esq., and Col. Ed. Graham Haywood, are of Counsel for Galloway, the people and the State.

The Standard says that the "people are vastly concerned in the question whether the State's interest in the public works shall be leased or sold. Whether the public mind has given any thought to this question, is not known to those who must dispose of it for them. The popular will should be known and have great weight given to it."

The "Ring" to sell these public works is already formed. Only a few natives are in it. It will be a sale to benefit Wall Street brokers. In twelve months after the sale, the people will have to pay seven, perhaps eight or ten, cents per mile for travelling on Railroads, and the money will be sent to New York. Now they pay four and five cents.

The new holders of these Roads will put such rates on freights, as will make them rich and keep the people poor. We say, with the Standard, "let the popular will be known." Let the people, by petition and remonstrance, instruct their members not to sell the State's interest in the Railroads. Let the people of every county hold public meetings and put the seal of their disapprobation upon the swindle and sale now in contemplation by foreigners, who have come among us for plunder and pillage.

We call earnestly upon the people in every county of the State to hold public meetings, and send speedily to the Legislature petitions and remonstrances against the sale of their property. You have no time to lose, fellow citizens; you will soon hear the cry of "going, going, gone!" And Judge Brooks cannot, by injunction, forbid the sale. If he could, we would not hesitate to apply for the injunction!

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Fresh arrivals of Dress Goods, Bleached and Brown Domestics: W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. This enterprising Firm are ready for the New Year with something choice and attractive.

Late Importations of Hardware, Sporting Materials, Cooking Stoves, &c.: J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis.)

THE STOCK FARM IN THOMASVILLE.—We are gratified to learn that Messrs. Jenkins & Skiles have every prospect of success before them in their laudable enterprize at Thomasville. The only stock they have on hand at present,—the progeny of Chester Hogs, that have taken State and United States premiums, wherever exhibited,—is the most superior ever known in this country, and the animals are greatly admired by all who see them. Messrs. J. & S. will, in the Spring, enter largely into the breeding and shipping of other improved stock, fowls, &c., and we propose, when they get fairly "under weigh," to send up a correspondent specially to examine and report upon the features of this enterprize, which we regard as one of the highest importance.

NEW PAPER.—We learn that the Rev. T. B. Kingsbury will publish, at an early day, a first class Family newspaper in Oxford.—He desires to correspond with some energetic newspaper man, (a practical printer,) who has the necessary printing material.

DISCHARGED.—T. B. Tisdale and J. L. Brodie, of this county, who were charged, by some strange misapprehension, with stealing a horse in Albemarle Co., Va., on the 8th ult., had a hearing before the Mayor of this city, on Tuesday, and were honorably discharged,—not a particle of evidence being found to criminate them in any manner whatever.

THE AUTOMATIC WASH BOILER.—This wonderful invention is meeting with unparalleled success, from every quarter.—Those households abroad, which have not supplied themselves, can do so by ordering from the proprietors, J. B. Hunter & Co., in this City. They sell No. 6, for $6; No. 7, $7; No. 8 $8; No. 9, $9; No. 10 $10.—They will promptly attend to all orders.—They have yet county rights unsold. The right of any county will return a profit of $2,500 on the investment.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Will you please announce that DOUGLAS BELL, Esq., will be supported for Commissioner for the Middle Ward, at the ensuing Municipal election? Mr. Bell is one of our very best and most enterprising citizens, and will make a most valuable member of our City Council.

MANY CITIZENS.

FEDERAL AND CONFEDERATE.

Now that the army reunion is over, we wish to suggest that all future reunions shall embrace the representative men of both armies—the Federal and the Confederate. Some of the speakers, during the late reunion, urged that the war be forgotten; and one of the prominent toasts included a sentiment whose expression was: "The South—let us be friends." In view of these facts, and these desires on the part of many of our officers, the suggestion of a fraternal meeting of the blue and grey cannot but be regarded as very apposite, and as one which will meet the views of a large majority of our gallant soldiers.

Grant and Lee; Sherman and Johnston; Thomas and Hood; Butler and Beauregard—all seated on the stage of the Opera House, in couples, would be a thrilling and most effective tableau. It would be the best possible exemplification of Grant's motto: "Let us have peace." As one fancies each one of these couples rising, hand on heart, in response to the commingled yells of the antagonists in the late unpleasantness, he becomes suffused with emotion over this grand exhibition of unity, fraternity, and soldierly regard and frankness.

Admitting the representatives of the old Confederate armies to a participation in these reunions would have the effect to tone down what may be termed the somewhat obstreperous character of the present gatherings. Now, when a patriot and hero, like Logan, mounts the rostrum at one of these reunions, he is very liable to slop over. Logan's desire for slaughter is insatiable. "He keeps right on killing rebels by the thousand, just as he did when he was at the head of his corps. He will not let up. It is kill, kill with him, like an Asiatic running a muck. At the banquet the other night he led a score of forlorn hopes; he charged over a dozen impregnable breastworks; he slaughtered whole hecatombs of rebels; he spatted the ceiling and wall, and deluged the floors and seats with rebel gore.

Now, if Lee or Johnston had been there, Logan would have spared his auditory the horror of so much killing. His well known courtesy, his scrupulous regard for the feelings of others, would have prevented his turning the Chamber of Commerce Hall into a slaughter pen. The same effect would have occurred in the case of other speakers. Among several of them, there was an uncontrollable disposition to pull out their sabres and to hack a few hundred or thousand rebels into mince-meat.

All this would have been avoided had the audience been half-and-half, and the galaxy, at the head of the room, of the same mixed materials. It is so easy to cut a man in pieces when he is a thousand miles away, that a good many pugnacious heroes cannot resist such an opportunity to annihilate somebody. One is apt to be more careful and a trifle less valorous and boastful when his antagonist fronts him point to point.

Besides saving a vast amount of bloodshed, the presence of our late antagonists would have other beneficial results. Their presence would have the effect to prevent the formation of rings among ex-army officers with a view of turning a reunion into a high pressure engine for the purpose of working the appointments to office.—Instead of turning, with a gorgeous compliment and a profound salaam to the general, every eight seconds, the speakers, by the presence of their gallant antagonists, would be chivalric enough to speak of the gallantry of their late opponents, and the reason why such heroes as themselves and such heroic men as their antagonists should live in peace and unity.

We hope to see an early adoption of our suggestion. Let the next reunion be held in Chicago, and let Lee and Sherman be invited to jointly preside, and Thomas, Hood, Johnston, Sheridan, Butterfield, Slocum and Forrest be invited to act as vice presidents.—Chicago Times.

THE UNITED STATES AND CHINA.

The Louisville Courier Journal has a correspondent in China who earnestly recommends the policy of introducing Chinese laborers into this country. He speaks of them as the very best laborers, being honest, industrious and submissive. He thinks every one of our Western States ought to have one million of Chinese laborers. At the same time, he says China affords a vast and profitable field for the skilled and educated labor of America. There they could build railroads, steamboats and telegraphs, and develop the mines of iron, coal, copper, gold and all other metals. They could light their cities with gas, and become teachers, lawyers, preachers and physicians. There ought to be an interchange of population between the two countries for the benefit of both, thereby giving an immense impulse to their prosperity. No local prejudices, he thinks, should prevent the most intimate relations, uninterrupted intercourse, and mutual interchange of products. As soon as the Pacific railroad is completed, he says Chinese laborers can be landed in all ports of the South and West at the small expense of $50 to $100 each. At first their passage will have to be paid by immigrant companies, and some person of good character, acquainted with both languages, would be required to accompany those from Northern China who have never traveled.

We suppose the necessary steps have already been taken by our government, in advance of all others, to expedite the very policy here recommended, and we shall not be surprised if, within the next five years, (perhaps sooner,) a stream of immigration sets in from China over the Pacific Railroad, filling up the vast area of uncultivated lands of the South and West with a rapidity altogether unexampled. The policy of universal suffrage without distinction of color or race, now being inaugurated by our government, will doubtless have the effect of encouraging immigration from that semi-barbarous nation now teeming with its hundreds of millions of redundant population. They are said to be a people of quick perceptions; and possessing the faculty of imitation beyond any other race, they will not probably be slow in doing what they see others do and claiming all the privileges offered by our laws. With some millions of these people scattered all over our country, who can foretell what the result will be?—What sort of a government will that be which is now being inaugurated, when, in addition to our several millions of enfranchised negroes, we shall have as many more equally ignorant Chinamen, upon whose votes we shall depend for the character of our government and its rulers—who will control our elections, and decide who shall make, and who administer our laws? The future seems to be pregnant with great changes in this country, and it depends much on the wisdom of our present rulers whether those changes shall be for weal or for woe.—Galveston News.

A correspondent of the New York Times says that Jefferson was saved from pecuniary embarrassment only by the Monticello farm; that Madison, after his retirement, with difficulty kept up a respectable appearance at Montpelier, and that his widow supported herself by the sale of the "wreck of personal effects;" that Monroe became "absolutely destitute" before he died; that Jackson had hardly money enough to entertain visitors at the Hermitage; and states other facts showing the painful impecuniosity of presidential incumbents.

From the Charlotte Democrat.

THE LATE MURDER OF MR. GLEASON.

We notice by our exchanges that erroneous reports are in circulation about the murder of Mr. Gleason in this city. The statement we made in our last issue is said to be correct by those who heard the testimony. Especially are the statements of the Newbern Republican erroneous. Mr. Gleason and the negro Dunlap were not arrested and carried before the Mayor—one or both were there as witnesses. Neither did Mr. Gleason have a quarrel with the negro in the Mayor's office and attempt to draw a pistol. He merely pointed out Dunlap to the Mayor as having called some one a "damn son of a bitch," when Dunlap fired the pistol. We repeat these statements, not for the purpose of exciting feeling against the murderer, but for the vindication of truth.

A letter published in the Raleigh Standard of the 24th, dated Charlotte, Dec. 23d, and signed "Veritas," is a gross misrepresentation of the affair. If the Standard will furnish us with the name of the author, we promise to prove his statement untrue, or if the author will make himself known to us, we will endeavor to convince him that he is either mistaken or wilfully misrepresents the facts for political purposes.—It is a shame to try to mix politics with such an affair.

The following is the verdict of the Coroner's Jury:

STATE OF N. C., MECKLENBURG COUNTY.

Inquisition taken before me, (Wm. P. Little, Coroner,) in the county aforesaid, the 19th, 20th and 21st of December, 1868, upon view of the body of James A. Gleason, late of the city of Charlotte, county and State aforesaid, then and there lying dead, and upon the oath of F. M. Ross as Foreman, J. J. Sims, Peter Sinclair, S. B. Meacham, John S. Means, Alexander Berryhill, O. J. Lang, Charles Elms, M. D. L. McLeod, Jefferson Berryhill, Lossen Blackwelder and Joseph Asbury, good and lawful men of Mecklenburg county, who being sworn and charged to inquire how and in what manner the said James A. Gleason, late of the city of Charlotte and county of Mecklenburg, came to his death, find the following verdict, to wit: That the deceased came to his death by violence at the hands of Lee Dunlap and Burton Schenck as principals. Lee Dunlap having shot, by pistol, the deceased in the left side just below the nipple, passing through the sixth rib into the heart and then into the bowels; also on the right side by a pistol shot at the hands of said Dunlap, causing a flesh wound—Burt Schenck striking a blow with a stick on the right side of the head, inflicting a severe wound. The Jury further find that Horace Lynch, alias Lowrie, was accessory to the felony by receiving the pistol from Lee Dunlap and concealing the same, with other testimony. Given under our hands and seals, this the 21st day of December, 1868.

WM. P. LITTLE, Coroner.

F. M. Ross, Foreman; Jos. J. Sims, P. J. Sinclair, O. J. Lang, C. H. Elms, Alex. Berryhill, S. B. Meacham, J. S. Means, M. D. L. McLeod, Jefferson Berryhill, L. A. Blackwelder, J. Asbury.

A HITCH ON TWO!—A Washington correspondent reports that it is not likely that the tenure-of-office act will be repealed this session. No reason assigned, and we are left to interference.

Contemporaneously, Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont, introduces a bill in the Senate to prohibit any officer of the army or navy from holding any civil office. The reason of this is not given. Whether the politicians think there are not more than enough offices for themselves, or that they are more competent for such duties than naval or military men; or whether it implies jealousy and distrust of Gen. Grant and military rule—we are left to conjecture. If the first suggestion be the true one, and civilians wish to absorb civil offices themselves, that would be in keeping with the disinterested patriotism of the age! If the latter—a dread of military ascendancy—be the true motive, the Hon. politicians are rather too late. The rule passed from their hands when, in '67, after they were beaten at the polls, they fell back, against their wishes, on the General of the Armies, and appealed to him to save them from Andy I. Since then they have been mere appendages, tolerated and permitted to go through certain forms; but as to all real power, as dead as Julius Cæsar. If Gen. Grant chooses to appoint Gen. Schofield Secretary of War, or Admiral Farragut Secretary of the Navy, or even to fill every post in the Government with Generals, he will do it—and ask no boot of Mr. Edmunds, or Mr. anybody else. Hav'nt the Conscript Fathers heard of the Army Reunion at Chicago, and that at the next Reunion all are to appear in full uniform? Let us have peace.—Rich. Whig.

NORTHERN CIVILIZATION.—The New York Herald says:

"Murder as one of the fine arts, as described by De Quincy, finds almost daily illustrations in moral and puritanical New England. It is evident that the lessons of the ancestors of the New England people, who hung Quakers and burnt witch a for pastime, are not forgotten. Seriously, cannot our New England philanthropists and philosophers pause a moment in their missionary works among the far off Hindoos and fat and lazy Africans and set about improving the immoral atmosphere with which they are surrounded, and in reclaiming from Satan's grip the poor, shivering souls akin to their own flesh and blood? A truly shocking state of affairs prevails in New England, and something should be done to check the course of society there in its downward career to utter demoralization."

The New York Sun, speaking of the way "justice" is administered in that city, says:

"Every lawyer will recognize the fidelity of the following sketch from the pen of Dr. Dyer:

"'What judge is your case coming before?'

"'Judge——,'

"'Then you must retain Mr.——'

"Such are the conversations which one now constantly hears in the law offices and court rooms of New York city; and what a depth of professional and judicial degradation such remarks reveal! In fact, with some exceptions, the whole method of the business of the bar and of the bench has become repulsive to honest men.

The fact is that the judges rather reflect the sentiments and character of low, pot-house politicians, than those of the average men of the community. They come on to the bench indebted to these wretches for their election; and under the thin guise of judicial forms, they rob and plunder honest men to pay their own political debts and to fill their own pockets."

NO PROSCRIPTION.—The New York Tribune announces as if authoritatively that Gen. Grant has emphatically declared his opposition, in so many words, to the old Jackson doctrine that to the victors belong the spoils. In other words, he is opposed to turning men out of office merely for opinion's sake.

A RIGHTEOUS VERDICT.—A jury in Hagerstown, Md., has rendered a verdict for $7,500 against that town in favor of Daniel Dechert, editor of the Mail, whose office was destroyed by a loyal mob during the war.

The county authorities made no requisition for her the Attorney for the County putting it on the ground that if the Court made requisition and executed her, it would be in direct disobedience of Judge Underwood's decision, and it could not try her again without conceding that all its actions since July were illegal and nugatory.

Gen. Stoneman declined to instruct the Mayor in the matter, and accordingly, the prisoner was turned loose at noon to-day.

The decision of Judge Underwood under which she is freed, is that no Clerk of a Court disqualified by the 14th amendment, is not now, nor has been since the adoption of the amendment, a legal Judge or Clerk, and that the proceedings of all Courts of which they form a part, are illegal.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $230,949.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern risks, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

A TERRIBLE INVENTION.

A REGIMENT OF SOLDIERS, A MILE AND A HALF DISTANT, TO BE KILLED IN FOUR MINUTES.

Some months ago a mechanical genius, whose name we are not at liberty to disclose, told us he had an idea, which he was endeavoring to "work out," by which a very little army could be made irresistible against any number of enemies. He promised to let us have the benefit of the idea if he found that it could be made practicable. Since then he has diligently worked at it every evening, Sundays not excepted, bringing it "out," as he calls it. During those months his abstracted air, his isolation, the constant succession of hopes and fears about the success or his project, which would be visible on his face for days together, led many of his neighbors to suppose that he was more or less crazy. He brought his long and absorbing labors to a successful termination about four days ago, and had the gratification of testing the utility of his perfected idea, with the most complete evidence of its practicability. The invention consists of a range of guns of 0.76 bore and about forty inches long, mounted on a carriage of very simple structure, to be hauled by one horse. The width of the carriage between the wheels is six feet. The gun barrels, twelve in number, are ranged apparently parrallel to each other upon this carriage. We say apparently, for their line of fire is not strictly parallel, but divergent, so that at three hundred yards distant the twelve bullets sweep a line of about thirty feet. They are ranged at equal distances from each other, except in the middle, where there is a space of ten inches, into which is placed a telescope of considerable power, and a nice arrangement for adjusting the guns in taking aim.—This contrivance enables the operator to send a bullet through the bull's eye at sixteen hundred yards nine times out of ten. The tubes themselves are rifled, are double the strength of ordinary rifles, and are made strong at the breech by a band six inches broad and one-sixth thick. They are all loaded at the breech. The breech pieces are all connected by a rod, which is attached to a crank, one turn of which opens and shuts all the breech pieces and loads the pieces, for the breech pieces, by this motion, are brought in contact with twelve tubes, placed immediately over the breeches, and containing the cartridges, the same turn extracting the cartridge from its tube, and inserting it with precision in its place in the gun. The guns are made ready for firing by as simple and rapid a motion as the turning of a crank. They are fired by an other slight motion, which drives twelve needles, inserted in the breech for the purpose, into the fulminate with which the cartridges are covered. So simple, sure and rapid are these movements that twenty seven rounds were fired in sixty-three seconds, yesterday, at the place of trial, out on the Hyde's Ferry pike. The cartridges are four inches in length, and do not entirely explode until the ball is about half way out of the barrel, an effect which is produced by a nice arrangement of the material of which they are composed. Except the bullet the whole cartridge is combustible, and leaves nothing behind when fired off. The gun will send a ball three miles. The aim is always good at two thousand yards. At a trial yesterday a line of plank, six inches broad, was raised four feet from the ground and fired at fifteen hundred yards distant, and out of sixty shots forty seven went through and six others left marks upon the edges of the planks. The inventor is confident that a regiment of soldiers a mile and a half distant could be all killed by one of these Pollyferi (the name he has given them,) in four minutes. In the hands of an intelligent, steady operator at least ninety per cent of the balls fired will take effect. The whole affair, when in fighting trim, weighs but five hundred pounds, and is intended to be hauled by one horse and worked by two men, one to drive and the other to operate. The loading and firing apparatus is so arranged that it can be detached in a moment, when the other part of the deadly engine becomes perfectly useless.—One of them can be finished all complete, with horse, etc., for $1,000. The inventor, a young working mechanic, feels jubilant at the great success which attended the first trial of his important production, which cost him so many months of toil and all the means which he had at his command. He goes to Washington in about a week to push his fortune and to revolutionize the art of war.

HOW THE RICHEST MAN IN THE WORLD LIVED.

As every one is interested to know how so rich a man as Baron Rothschild lived, correspondents are particular as to every movement of his daily life. It is related that he rose every morning at six o'clock. His body servant shaved and dressed him. Meanwhile, M. Boudeville, (a teacher of elocution, who fits people for the stage,) read the newspapers to him, and told him the gossip of the green rooms of Paris theatres. He was dressed for the day at this early hour, putting on even a white cravat. He next received a Prussian named Bernard, with whom he examined the quotations from the great exchanges of Europe and decided upon and gave orders for the transactions of the day. He next received the correspondence clerks, took from them the more important letters which required a reply from the Baron and approved or modified the proposed replies to other letters. Then the almoner came in and reported on the poor relieved, and received new instructions. He then went to Mme. de Rothschild for her instructions. After the almoner retired the Baron received his experts, men who kept him informed of all art and book sales; they made reports or received instructions. He then went to breakfast. All the family met at breakfast, and usually one or two of his married children were present. After breakfast the baron went to his office (which was immediately on the street, and separated from his house by the court yard—a covered way reached from one to the other) to receive people. At two o'clock he would sometimes go to the Bourse, or oftener to the auction mart, for he was fond of buying objects of curiosity and pictures. He would return to his office, and at four o'clock drive down to Chateau de Suresne or Bois de Bologne, returning at five o'clock to his club, where he would play whist at ten sous a point until dinner time. During the last part of his life he became eccentric in a good many small matters. He carried a portmonnaie which was closed by a lock, although he never carried more than fifty francs about him, (if a man carries more he is sometimes led to extravagant expense, he used to say,) and often nothing at all.—He carried the key of this lock on his watch chain. The members of the club in the Rue Royal used to laugh to see the baron fumbling for his key, and even his lock, (his sight was latterly impaired,) and when, at last, he managed to open the portmonnaie, to find it empty. After dinner he received company at home, or went to some theatre.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable
